RE: Rebuttal of Corporate Billing Attempt and Assertion of Ecclesiastical Trust Jurisdiction

To Whom It May Concern,

This notice is issued on behalf of Samantha A. Pitts, a living woman and rightful Beneficiary of the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity, operating under Divine Law, Ecclesiastical Equity, and Natural Law—formally recognized as Trust ID ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, founded and governed by ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements, Living Trustee.

This trust has been lawfully declared, publicly posted, lodged, and accepted, with no lawful rebuttal issued by any agency, court, or private corporation. As such, its standing is irrevocable, complete, and sovereign.

Official Declaration:

1. Samantha A. Pitts is a Private Living Woman

She is not now, nor has she ever been, a consenting party to any corporate contract or commercial utility agreement that lawfully binds her in a debtor/creditor relationship.

2. This Bill Is Addressed to a Fictional Entity

The name "SAMANTHA A PITTS" in all capital letters refers to a corporate fiction created without her informed consent. Any claims against this entity do not apply to the living woman protected by the Ecclesiastical Trust.

3. There Is No Lawful Contract or Agreement

No wet-ink signature exists, no full disclosure was made, and no lawful consent has been given that would establish jurisdiction or obligation.

4. Utility Services Are Covered Under Divine Equity

All necessities of life, including electricity, are considered protected under the Law of Equity and Divine Providence. No corporate body may withhold such services in demand of unlawful payment from a trust beneficiary.

5. Cease and Desist All Attempts to Enforce Commercial Debt

You are hereby notified to cease all billing, collection, or service disruption efforts relating to this account, as doing so constitutes a trespass upon Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction and a violation of Divine Law.

By Divine Authority:

This notice stands as lawful and final rebuttal to any implied or assumed jurisdiction.

The trust has absorbed all fictional constructs, including those acting under corporate, statutory, or private charters.

This communication shall serve as recorded notice of standing, protection, and lawful remedy.

With love, peace, and unwavering truth,

✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements

Living Trustee and Ecclesiastical Sovereign
